

Autumn Hugo
Director, NASDAQ Corporate Solutions
NASDAQ

For the last eight years at Nasdaq, Autumn's core focus has been fostering and expanding the relationships with public companies while ensuring prospective companies and IPOs have a deep understanding of Nasdaq Corporate Solutions offerings spanning from Investor Relations, Public Relations and Governance. Autumn's focus is ensuring public companies have a deeper understanding of the investor relations offerings NASDAQ can provide their organization to foster a best in class IR program. Autumn is a graduate from Texas A&M University with a BA in Marketing. She is a member of the National Investor Relations Institute, Women's Initiative at Nasdaq (WIN), IPAA and Women in Energy. Autumn currently serves as Secretary on the board of the Houston NIRI Chapter and was the SW NIRI Conference Chair for 2015, centered on the LifeCycle Concept of a Public Company. The last 3 years Autumn has had the pleasure of being a judge for Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year program for the Gulf Coast Region. She is passionate about giving back by volunteering at organizations as Young Life Heights, Star of Hope, and Living Water International.

Marissa Vidaurri
Business Planning Manager, Investor Relations and Government
Relations
National Instruments

Marissa Vidaurri is the Business Planning Manager at National Instruments. She is responsible for the company's Investor Relations and Government Relations programs. In her role, Marissa crafts external messaging for investor days, earnings calls and interaction with the investors and government officials.

With more than 15 years of experience, Marissa is a powerful communicator, analytical thinker, and efficient problem solver with strong business acumen. Her career has offered her unique experience across several disciplines, including: corporate messaging, strategic planning, budget management and acquisitions. Highly skilled in leading large, cross-functional initiatives, she is passionate about aligning corporate strategies for business impact to drive long-term growth.

Marissa earned a degree in communications from The University of Texas at Austin.